Grand Prize Winner walks away 50” Panasonic VIERA 3D TV Set Tung Foo Heng from Kepong walks home with a 50” VIERA 3D TV Set and exclusive Barclays Premier League (BPL) Merchandise, courtesy of Panasonic Malaysia.

Petaling Jaya, 15 June 2011 – After 15 weeks participating in the GoalRush contest on the Panasonic Malaysia Facebook Page, 23 years old software engineering student Tung Foo Heng emerged as the grand prize winner, after accumulating the highest score throughout the competition. Scoring the highest number of the goals on GoalRush won him a 50” VIERA 3D TV set.

Managing Director of Panasonic Malaysia Mr Jeff Lee presented the prize to an excited Tung during the prize giving ceremony at the Panasonic Malaysia Head Office.

“I never expected to win the grand prize of this contest, and I was surprise and excited after receiving a call from Panasonic Malaysia asking me to collect my prize.” “This is the first time I have won a contest since I join Club Panasonic and participated in a few contests previously.” said Tung.

The contest organized by Panasonic Malaysia, ran from 7 February to 20 May 2011, require participants to add the GoalRush Application on their respective Facebook pages and share the application with as many friends as possible. The participants were then required to register for the GoalRush Contest and score as many goals as possible on the interactive, football-themed Facebook game. Tung won with the highest score among other participants.
